Volume 30 Issue 3

November 2009

November 9—Terri Shea

—Heidi Finley

Our November meeting brings us Terri Shea, knitwear designer and author of Selbuvtotter: Biography of a Knitting Tradition (November, 2007).

Terri learned to crochet as a young girl, has been spinning since 1989 and started knitting in 1997 when she learned the basics from a co-worker. Selbuvtotter is the result of a Museum Studies certificate she was working on in Seattle, Washington, detailing the history of Selbu knitting, and it includes thirty mitten and glove patterns.

Since she knits for a living, Terri does not always want a challenge in personal knitting. That said, she is a product knitter for her professional life; she works on projects that need to be completed, and she is a process knitter with "pieces I want to work on when I want to veg." Jo Sharp is Terri's favorite designer due to her well thought out and "beautifully proportioned" designs.

Shea's favorite knitting tool is Adobe Illustrator with the great deal of design work she does for her business, and she loves being able to build charts quickly and then play with color combinations before casting on. Shea does not have a favorite pattern and hasn't knit the same thing twice, except plain socks. She says, "I only wear hand-knit socks in the winter." Mittens are her favorite thing to knit.

We look forward to hearing Terri talk about the Selbu knitting traditions.

From Our President—Kate Findley

Please Pass The Yarn.

Thanksgiving dinners take eighteen hours to prepare. They are consumed in twelve minutes. Half-times take twelve minutes. This is not coincidence. ~Erma Bombeck

I recently saw Christmas decorations for sale in a local store. This can only mean one thing; Thanksgiving is only a few weeks away. There are some Thanksgiving traditions that are sacrosanct: turkey and all the trimmings, the wearing of elastic waistbands, and falling asleep while watching football. Couples celebrating their first Thanksgiving together may find it difficult to navigate the differing family traditions - "Why didn't you tell me your mother puts raisins in the stuffing? You know I hate raisins!" "Your brother is a Vikings fan?!" "It took me 14 hours to make this cranberry sauce, and you're telling me your family prefers canned cranberry sauce?!"

Some families have a tradition of each person saying what they are thankful for. This can be a nerve-racking situation.

Everyone ahead of you has already said they're thankful for family, friends, good health, a home, food, their jobs, etc. You want to avoid saying you're thankful for specific people because, like an Oscar acceptance speech, you won't live it down if you forget someone important, like your spouse or your mother-in-law. I'd like to be able to observe this tradition with other knitters - people who wouldn't raise their eyebrows if I would say "Addi Turbos," or "alpaca," or "patterns I don't have to re-size" or "in this economy, I am thankful for my stash."

Thanksgiving, after all, is a word of action. ~W.J. Cameron. There is a segment of our population that is often overlooked or forgotten, especially during the holiday season - the inmates in our state prisons. Wisconsin currently incarcerates over 22,000 people. Of these, there are over 1,200 women incarcerated at Taycheedah Correctional Institution and four other Holiday Hours: M-F 10-5:30 PM, Sat: 10-4, Sun 11-1.

Even though Christmas is just around the corner, it is always Christmas at 'Tis the Season one of our November vendors. Owned by Muriel Coleman a member of the guild since Union South days, 'Tis the Season, a holiday and Christmas store with a yarn corner, has been open since 1988.

Coleman started in knitting in junior high when a neighbor taught her the basics and now she knits for the enjoyment and stress-reducing qualities. Her favorite yarn is Galway for sweaters because the yarn feels so nice and alpaca for scarves. Coleman loves the lifelong technique that knitting provides people.

Coleman stocks a reasonably priced assortment of wool, cotton, blends, sock yarn, and acrylics that she will be bringing to the meeting along with books, knitting-related Christmas items, and Jim Shore collectibles.

'Tis the Season has knitting classes twice a week and open knitting on Wednesdays from 1-4 p.m. The weekend of November 21-22 is the annual "Bucks" weekend where a $50 purchase will give shoppers 10 "bucks" off.

The Knitting Room

—Gail Schmitt

It is not often that a brand new employee buys into the business, but that's what Beth Mannebach did after working at The Knitting Room in Fond du Lac for about two weeks. Seeing a need for a knitting shop in the area, Kristin Johnson and Patty Trepanier had opened the shop in 2002 as an extension of a knitting group that had been meeting in members' homes. When Patty left in 2006 to join her family's business, Beth bought Patty's share of the Knitting Room. Kristin comes from a family with many knitters and learned from them, whereas Beth taught herself how to knit in high school when a broken wrist limited her activities.

Kristin enjoys helping customers pick out yarn for their projects; Beth also likes getting them started as well as seeing the finished projects. Beside the two owners, there are seven other employees. There is open knitting on Tuesday nights when the shop is open until 9:00 p.m. A complete list of hours is on the shop's web site, www.theknittingroomwi.com.

The web site also has links to the companies for the yarn, patterns, and accessories that the Knitting Room carries. In addition to the newest yarns, from which they knit projects so you can see the yarn worked up, they also carry the latest knitting books as well as some patterns that are exclusive to the Knitting Room. The web site includes a very extensive list of classes, for beginning to experienced knitters, and some of the classes are free with the purchase of kits. A very nice and helpful touch is that for many of the classes, the online descriptions are accompanied by color photos of the finished projects, so that you can see what you will be working on. A really great idea!

Kristin and Beth will be bringing sample items knitted from the yarns in their shop, including some of their personal patterns, along with the yarns they used. They will accept cash, check, Mastercard, and Visa.

If you want to visit the Knitting Room in person, there are directions on the web site to the new store, which opened in July 2008 and is about three blocks north of their original location. There is parking in both the front and the back of the shop. If you would like to order from them but can't get to Fond du Lac, give them a call (920-906-4800) or send them an e-mail (theknittingroom@att.net).

minimum security institutions. The holidays are an especially bleak time for those in prison. Vacation days for staff means little or no programming is available, including visits from family. Guild member, Mary Bertun, is collecting yarn for women incarcerated at two institutions. Many of us are lucky enough to have an ample stash and probably have skeins that we could easily part with. Your yarn will help give these women a purpose. The items they make are often donated to local charities, giving them ways to be of use to the community. Please bring your donation of yarn to our November meeting. It will mean so much to those who have so little.

The members of this guild are generous people who have done much to support our charity efforts in our community and around the world. We are thankful for each and every one of your contributions. In the spirit of thanksgiving, we encourage you to continue to take steps to help others, whether through our monthly charity knitting projects or donations of your time or money to the charity of your choice. If you are searching for a charity to support, you can visit <http://www.charitynavigator.org/> for help in finding a charity. Looking for other opportunities? Our speaker in October, Betty Christiansen, wrote a whole book about opportunities. On Ravelry, if you search groups using "charity knitting," there are 17 pages of groups. Google "charity knitting" and you'll get 1,740,000 results. There is a veritable bounty of ways to give to those less fortunate.

Happy Thanksgiving to you and yours. And if you blurt out "addi turbos" at thanksgiving dinner, don't blame me.

Monday, October 12, 2009 Meeting Minutes —Kay Moffat

Kate opened the meeting at 7:10 p.m. How exciting to be in our new location, have the availability of ordering food and drinks and most importantly welcoming 16 visitors and 20 new members.

The vendors for the evening were Knitters' Treat and Linda Loeffelholz. Both vendors were signing their books, and they donated the door prizes for the evening. Thank you to the vendors.

Kate had several announcements: Parking: Since there are so many members who need to park, be careful how you park - stay within the lines. Brown Bag Exchange: Kate explained how this would work, turning in your yarn and picking up another to knit and return to the May meeting. UFO Retreat: Our retreat will be January 22- 24, 2010, at the Chalet Landhaus in New Glarus. Handouts were available at the registration desk, and there will be more available at the next meeting. Name Tags: If one's name tag has a #1, this indicates a first year member. Teacher Training Session: Some items were left at the training. Mary Jo Harris has these items. Patterns for Show and Tell: Jodi had volunteered to get the patterns from the Show and Tell portion of our meetings onto the website. Yarn Shop Closings: Northwoods, Black Sheep, and the yarn shop in Ladysmith are closing —great sales are going on. Other Vendors: Handouts were on the chairs at our meeting from Woodland Studio in Stoughton and Hidden Valley Farm and Woolen Mill in Valders, Wisconsin. Knit Along: The snowflake pattern was in the last newsletter. Charity News: There was an article in the last newsletter about the Lands End project for charity. On Friday, November 6, at 6:00 p.m., a representative from Lands End will be at their store located in Sears to talk more about this project.

Our speaker this evening was Betty Christianson from La Crosse. She talked about "knitting for peace." Her presentation included a trunk showing of projects from her book Knitting for Peace: Make the World a Better Place One Stitch at a Time.

Show and Tell items admired by the members were presented by Judy, Ann, Robbie, Heidi, MacKenzie, Theresa, Muriel, Liz, Janet and Gretchen.

Door Prizes were won by Mary Ellen Spoerke, Maureen Richards, Janice Kaplan, and Julie Smith.

Community Projects: Jane Newman was introduced as the chair for this project, along with her committee. Many wonderful items were donated.

Introducing The Enabler Scarf Kit.

Highly textured yarn finally available to the public at Hidden Valley Farm's Holiday Open House November 20-22, 2009. MKG members receive one-time only 10% discount on Laurie's yarn.

Yarn Council Teacher Training Session

—Connie Burmeister

During the weekend of October 9, 10 and 11, twenty-five members of our guild completed a teacher training class sponsored by the Craft Yarn Council of America. Our main teacher was Evie Rosen. Evie was one of the original writers of our class materials, she owned a yarn shop in Wausau, Wisconsin, for many years. She began the Warm-Up America charity knitting project which is now a foundation run by the Craft Yarn Council, and she taught this same class to members of our guild several years ago. Evie was assisted by her daughter, Robin Stott, and by her good friend, Audrey Hein. Everything from yarn overs to intarsia to sweater and skirt design was covered in our classes.

Our weekend culminated in each of us teaching a ten-minute class on the topic of our choice. Some of us were rather nervous about teaching our peers, many of whom are already very experienced teachers. We had a wonderful variety of topics, some appealing to beginners and some to more advanced knitters.

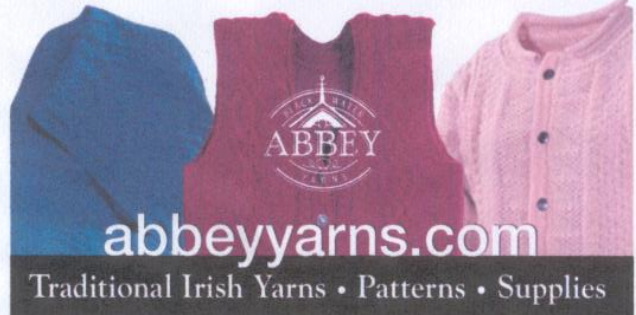

Classes included cast-ons taught by Sue Dwyer, and Anne Martin; stretching/yoga exercises taught by Bonnie Dill and Julie Plass-Smith; cables taught by Petra Horst, Portuguese knitting taught by Mary Jo Harris, and magic loop knitting taught by Doreen Brunner.

Those who completed the class must now do fifteen hours of teaching (for free) in order to receive an official certification.

Please keep us in mind if you hear of a specific need!

Book Review

—Amanda Haynes

In Knit One, Kill Two, Kelly Flynn temporarily moves back to her hometown of Fort Collins, Colorado, after her only living relative, Aunt Helen, is murdered. While she is both grieving and working through her aunt's estate, Kelly starts to notice that things about her aunt's murder just don't seem to add up. Kelly and her friends, knitters from the House of Lambspun, begin to track down clues and information to questions still unanswered by the police.

The second book in the series, Needled to Death, continues where the first book left off, with Kelly still trying to find her place in Fort Collins but growing closer to her friends and also facing another murder; this time of a knitting acquaintance. Kelly uses her reasoning and deduction skills from her job as a CPA as well as her personal intuition to piece together the case, with the help of Burt, a retired cop and spinner and her knitting friends from Lambspun. They soon figure out motives and murderers in these two lovely books.

Author Maggie Sefton has created a wonderful series of knitting mysteries with these stories. The characters are well developed, respond to each other, and grow as a group. Her descriptions of Colorado are beautiful and articulate, and I think all knitters would love to have a yarn shop like the House of Lambspun. The descriptions of the shop's yarns almost made me want to put down the book and go knit. The knitters at the yarn shop are a diverse but connected group. They each offer a new dimension and perspective to Kelly's knitting and case solving. The stories are well played out and will keep you guessing as to who done it and why. There is also more for Kelly to do than just knit and sleuth. She must decide whether to stay in Fort Collins or return to Washington DC where her job is based. There is also a possible love interest awaiting her next move as well as all the new friends Kelly is meeting in Fort Collins and how they impact her life.

Through these books, the main character, Kelly, also discovers a love of knitting. As in real life, there is also delicious food involved and a recipe from the story and a knitting pattern are included at the end of the book.

Please come settle in and visit the House of Lambspun, Kelly and her friends could use an extra set of eyes on their next case.

MKG's Library Return Policy

Our new library policy has gone into effect as of September 1, 2009. All library materials are to be properly checked out by members and are to be returned or renewed at the next monthly meeting.

Each month's newsletter will include a reminder to those members who have overdue items from the library. Any member who has overdue items from the library shall not check out more items from the guild library until all overdue items are returned to the guild library.

If materials are not returned after this overdue reminder has appeared in the newsletter, a penalty of $5.00 per item will be assessed for each month the item remains overdue.

If any item is overdue for more than four months, the library may bill the borrower for the replacement cost of the item. The member is responsible for the overdue fines or the replacement cost, whichever is higher. Any exceptions or special arrangements may be made at the librarian's discretion.

Any unpaid library fees will be added to membership renewal fees and must be paid before a borrower's guild membership can be renewed.

REMINDER—Every Snowflake is Different Knit-Along

—Molly Tull

Join your fellow Guild members in a unique knitalong. Knit what you want, with the yarn you want. Show your individuality in your knitting. The only requirement is that you somehow incorporate the motif that was provided in the September issue of our guild's newsletter (page 6). For those with access to the Internet, go to the following link:

http://www.madisonknittersguild.org/knittersknews/2009_september.pdf. Bring your creation to the December meeting to show how your snowflake is different. Please include a tag with your name and yarn information with your entry. Everyone who participates will be entered for a chance at one of three prizes. So get your needles clicking and let's turn that snowflake into a blizzard!

New Parking Available for Monthly Guild Meetings

Our guild has been given permission to park in the lot of the State Bank of Cross Plains for our monthly meetings. The bank is conveniently located next to the West Side Club. We thank them for letting us use their parking lot.

Got Stash? MKG member Mary Bertun works for the Wisconsin Department of Corrections and recently donated part of her stash to female inmates at two of our state institutions. It was greatly appreciated, and the incarcerated knitters contribute to a number of charity projects for needy community members. There is a need for yarn for their future projects. Mary is asking that members consider bringing yarn to our November 9 meeting for this project. Please mark it with her name and place it in Jane Newman's Community Projects area at the West Side Club. Can't get to the meeting? Please contact Mary, and she will be happy to pick it up. Her phone and email are: 225-3015 and marybertun@tds.net. Thank you so much for your willingness to part with some of your stash!

Getting to Know Our Members— Nancy Elmer

MKG member Nancy Elmer lives in Woodruff, Wisconsin.

Describe your first knitting experience.

I learned to knit from my maternal grandmother, Grandma Beutel, when I was probably about 8-years-old. I knit scarves and simple hats. I didn't have much support from friends, so I put the needles away. About six years ago, we were going camping, and I knew I couldn't take my sewing machine in order to quilt, so I purchased a knitting book, some cheap yarn and some needles from Wal-Mart. I haven't had the sewing machine out since.

How did you learn to knit?

Grandma taught me to be a thrower. Now that seems strange to me since she was from Germany and should have been a picker.

What's your favorite pattern?

I'm not sure that I have a favorite pattern. I join many mystery lace shawl KALs. I like the present one better than the last and will probably like the next one even more.

Who's your favorite designer?

There are several, Monika Eckert from Germany, Ann Dalvi from Canada, Renee Leverington, Cheryl Oberli, Nancy Bush, etc...

What's your favorite knitting tool (besides needles, of course) and why?

Probably the crochet hook. I use one to add beads to my lace, a different one to pick up dropped stitches, and one for provisional cast on.

Who do you knit for the most?

Four beautiful grandchildren, loving significant other, priceless friends, and myself.

Circular or straight? Defend your choice.

Circular, without a doubt. The knitting seems to be so much easier, and the weight is spread more evenly.

Where is the weirdest place you have ever knit?

In the car in the waiting line at the drug store.

What project do you currently have on your needles?

Let's see: a shawl with beads, a lace bedspread, a double knit tam, and 3 pairs of socks

Do you have a best knitting memory?

Yes. During the summer, Connie Burmeister, Maggie Rabjohns and I knit in Connie's sun room. We drink coffee, eat Maggie's homemade coffee cake, talk, and knit. What could be better?

How about a worst?

A bad day knitting is better than a good day not knitting.

What advice do you have for fellow knitters?

Try something different. Find someone that has knitted something that you like and ask if they will help you try to make something similar for yourself. You will be surprised. You will learn something new. You will have something you made that you like, and you will have made a new friend.

UFO Retreat

January 22-24, 2010

Too many UFOs? One UFO that's causing too much grief? Pack them up and bring them along to the Knitting Retreat in New Glarus. Chipping away at our UFOs together will be a fun way to make some progress on those space invaders. Join us for the weekend or one day. Finishing a project will earn you a chance for a gift certificate. If you want to bring a guest, there will be a $5.00 registration charge. Lunch on Saturday is $13.00 and will require a reservation to Kay Moffat, 608-241-8716 or kay8590@sbcglobal.net. (MKG members do not need a reservation to attend, but please make a reservation for lunch.)

Please make your own hotel reservations by calling the Chalet Landhaus at 1-88-944-1716. Our guild has reserved a block of rooms— Single $65 or Double $85. Ask for the MKG room rate.

What a wonderful array of baby items that were donated at the October Guild meeting.

Everything from booties, hats, sweaters, blankets to diapers were donated and will keep many babies and young children warm and dry this winter in the Madison community. There were many other articles and food donated that can be used by all age groups.

Next month's targeted item is mittens. We have already had a taste of cold weather to remind us how necessary mittens or gloves are during a Wisconsin winter. An easy pattern for all age groups follows.

Four Needle Mittens

MATERIALS NEEDED: 2 oz. Knitting Worsted for child sizes small (medium large, adult woman, adult man); 1 set size 4 double point needles

GAUGE: 6 sts = 1 inch 9 rounds or rows = 1 inch

CUFF: Cast on and divide on 3 needles 32 (36, 40, 44, 48) stitches. Join. Work k2, p2 ribbing for 2 ½ (2 ½, 3, 3, 3 1/2) inches decreasing in the last round 1 (2, 2, 2, 0) stitches. There will be 31 (34, 38, 42, 48) stitches.

HAND: Knit even for 3 (3, 3, 4, 4) rounds.

First increase round for thumb gore--Inc. 1 st. in first st (first thumb st), k 1, inc. 1 st in next st (last thumb st), k to end of round--33 (36, 40, 44, 50) stitches. Knit 2 rounds.

Second increase round--Inc 1 st in first st, k3, inc 1 st in next st, k to end--35 (38, 42, 46, 52) stitches. Continue to inc 1 st in first and last thumb st every 3 rd round 2(2, 3, 4, 5) times having 2 sts more between inc after each inc round--39(42, 48, 54, 62) stitches. K 2 rounds. Slip to a strand of yarn the 11 (11, 13, 15, 17) thumb stitches.

Knit-Aid Station

Just can't figure out what the pattern is trying to tell you to do? Can't remember how to make that certain stitch? Can't figure out what you did, but it sure doesn't look right? NEED HELP?

The Knit-Aid Station will be open beginning at 6:00 p.m. prior to our monthly meetings at the West Side Club. Each month, two members of our guild will be available as "Knitting Doctors" to staff the table for those of you who need help with a project. If you are interested in staffing the help desk, please contact Robbie Preston.

Newsletter Submissions

Do you have an idea for an article in our monthly newsletter? Submissions are always welcome. The deadline for submitting articles is the 20th of each month. Articles may be sent to Jayne Coster at jaynecoster@ameritech.net.
